

ATBI's JAZZ CONCERT ORGANIZATION IN ISTANBUL AND ANKARA

On the 17th of April in Ankara, and the 19th of April in Istanbul, ATBI and Australian Ministry of Foreign Affairs organized a concert with Australia's famous jazz artist Michelle Nicole, with the accompaniment of the Quartet group who performed a jazz recital as part of the Anzac week activities.

ATBI's president Mehmet Ali Karamemis and a member of the executive committee Ibrahim Sahin, organized a briefing to the press at the Hilton Hotel in Melbourne Airport.

During the briefing, the details of the first concert organization with the Australian Government were announced to the Turkish media.

The concert was organized and held on the 17th of April 2007 at the Swiss Hotel in Ankara and on the 17th of April 2007 at the Babylon Club in Istanbul. As well as Turkish diplomats, there were foreign affairs officials from different countries and Ambassadors from fourteen nations who attended the concert.

Australia's Ambassador of Ankara Jean Dunn was also a part of the organization of the concert and paid close attention and interest to all the guests.

The official sponsors of the concert organization were; Australian Government, Australian Embassy Ankara, Australia Council for Art, ATBI, Australia Northern Europe Liaisons.

address

